

Four Corners Bible Trivia

15-20 minutes • Ages 6-12 • Four Corner Signs (A, B, C, D)

Get kids moving while they test their Bible knowledge. Read each question and its four answers, then have kids walk to the corner they think is correct. Includes 12 ready-to-play rounds.

How to Play

1. Get ready. Place an A, B, C, or D sign in each corner, leaving room for kids to move safely.
2. Explain the game. Each question has four answers. Read the question and all four choices before anyone moves.
3. Choose a corner. Kids walk, not run, to the letter that matches their answer.
4. Reveal the answer. Read the correct answer, Scripture reference, and short explanation. Answer questions as needed.
5. Keep playing. After each question, everyone chooses another corner—even if they answered incorrectly. Continue through all 12 rounds.

Change It Up

Team Challenge: Divide the class into teams and let teammates discuss answers before moving.

Explain Your Answer: Ask a kid to explain their choice before you share the explanation.

Beat the Clock: Give kids 10 seconds to choose a corner after all four answers are read.

Keep in Mind

Kids who cannot move easily or whose room is small can point to the A, B, C, or D sign instead.

A Simple Way to Finish

After the last question, ask which Bible story or fact surprised the kids most. Let a few share what they remember.
